EA highlighted Proficiency tests metal 2014

These proficiency tests were selected by the EA working group ILCs in Testing to monitor the international multi-lateral agreements. A summary of the results will be evaluated without disclosing the individual confidentiality of the participants. The EA working group ILCs in Testing highlights this proficiency test to its ABs. It is expected that the ABs strongly encourage and support their applicant and accredited laboratories to participate in this proficiency test in order to maximise the quality of relevant data.

Applications for this test will be accepted until April, 30th 2014
